"Five Pillars of Islam"

① Shahadah

Shahadah is the word given to make the proclamation of faith and devotion of your belief that there is only one God, Allah SWT and that He has sent his messenger prophet Muhammad (PBUH) to guide us. As the first pillar of Islam, the Shahadah is one most important and serves as your first submission to the muslims and proclaims.

⑧ Salah.

Salah also known as salat is the second pillar for muslims and the act of compulsory daily prayer performed five times a day at set times.

- Fajr in morning
- izhar at noon when sun has passed over a very high point
- Asr : In afternoon even before sunset
- Magrib : after sunset, when the sun sets under the sky
- Isha between sunset and midnight

③ Zakat

⇒ zakat literally means "purification" but is accepted by many as a compassion of the heart. For Muslims, it is believed that Allah SWT.

④ ~~Sawm~~ Sawm

The term Sawm means to fast, which is where the month of Ramadan comes in.

⑤ Hajj

The fifth and final pillar of Islam is the Hajj, an annual pilgrimage to Mecca. It is the time for Muslims all over the world to come together in mecca and perform
